FOREWORD

This, the 1956 Corral, is an attempt to catch the history and spirit of Robert Lee High School, in word and pictures for another year.

To those who have so generously contributed to this book's construction, I am unable to express my gratitude.

My only hope is that this book will be shown to friends, family--and future heirs--with pride.

DEDICATION

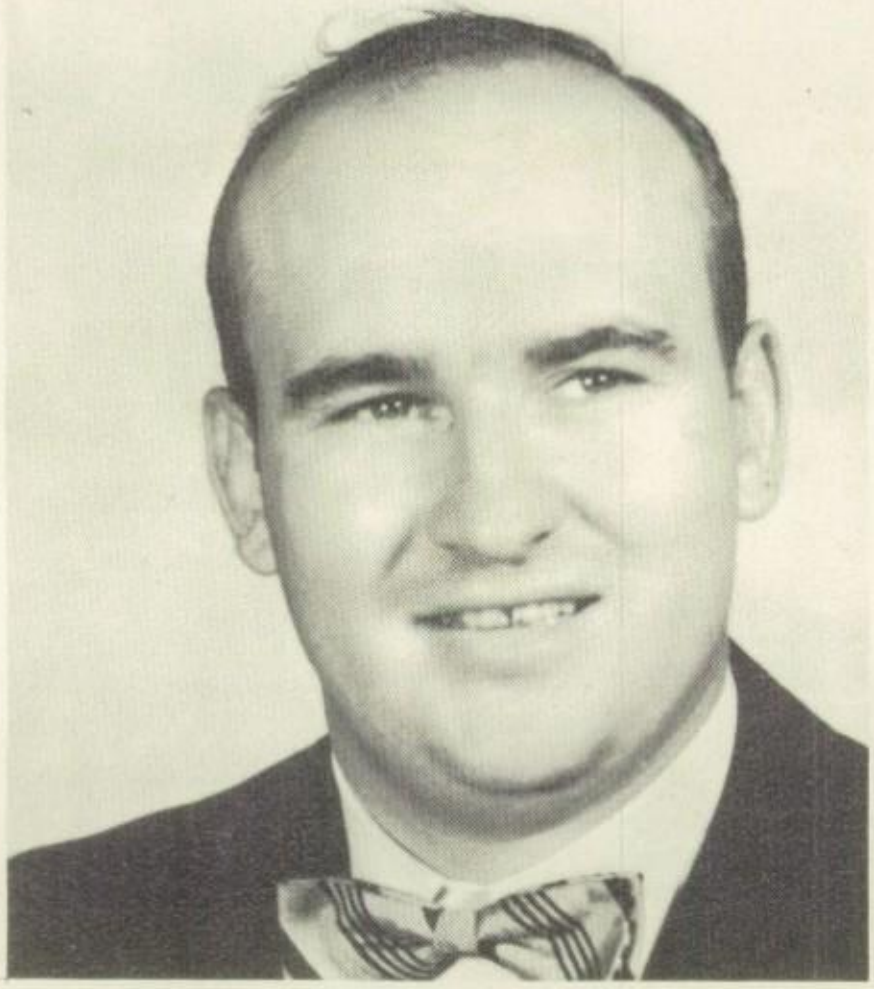
YEARBOOK



We would like to dedicate this 1956 Corral to Mr. Jack Brock - our friend and teacher who has contributed so much to each of us.

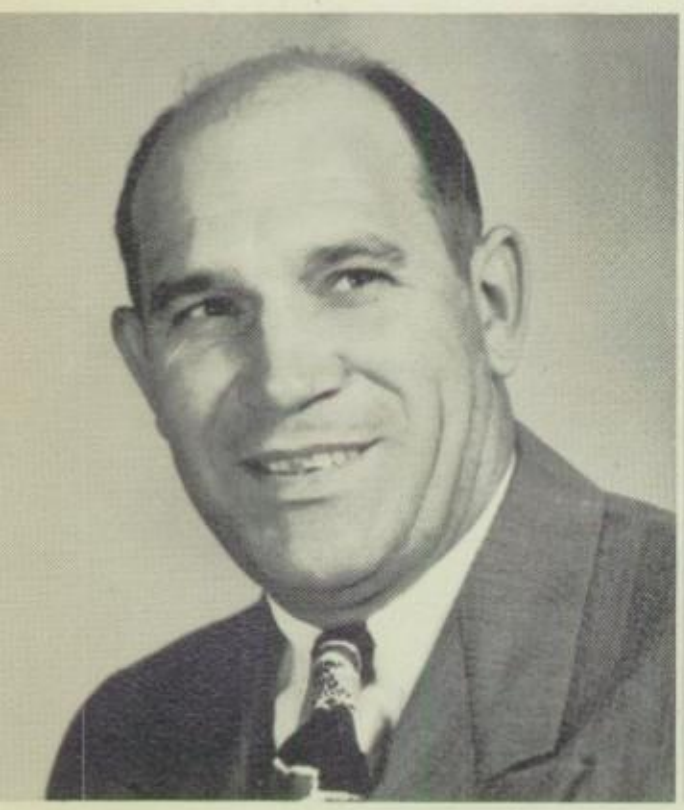
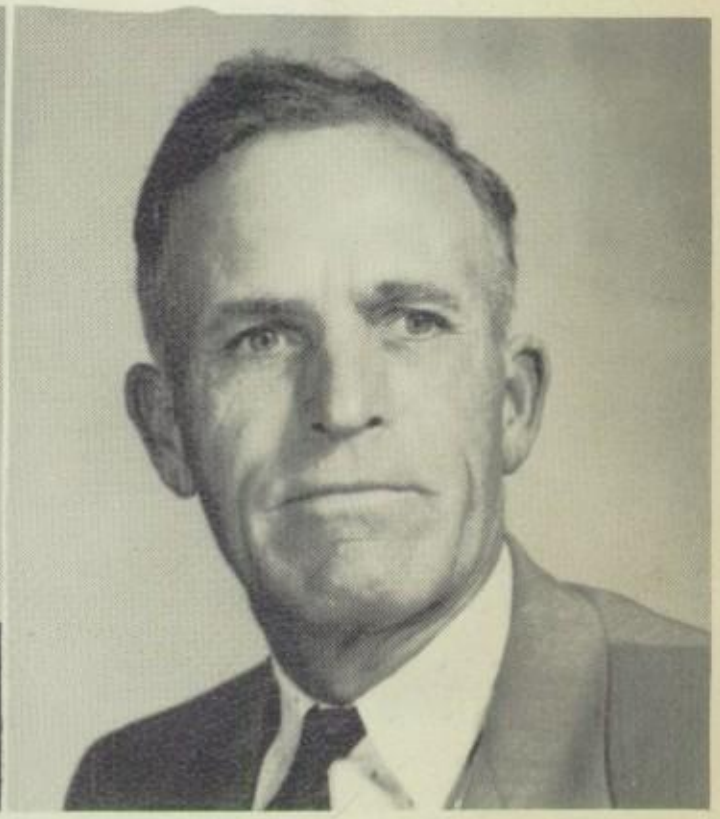
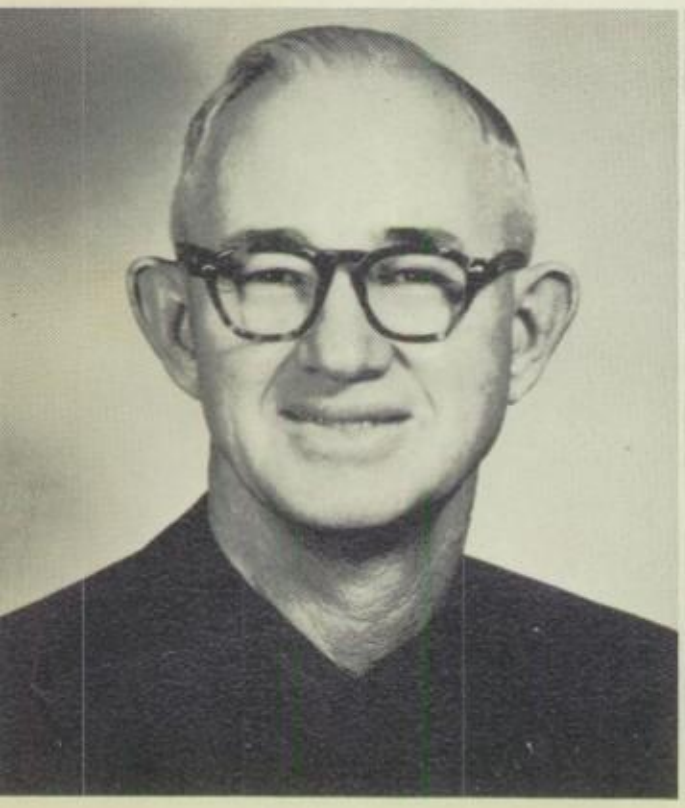
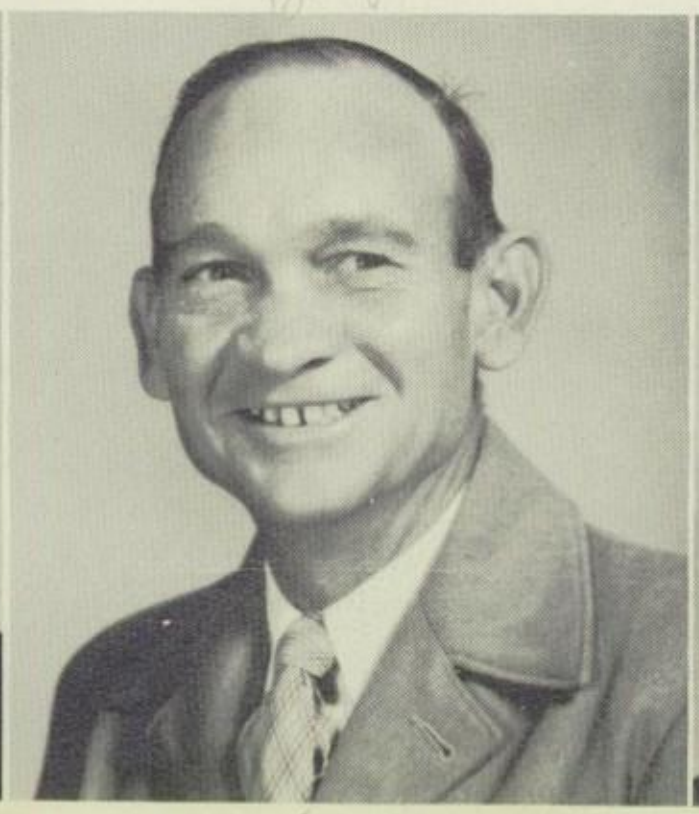
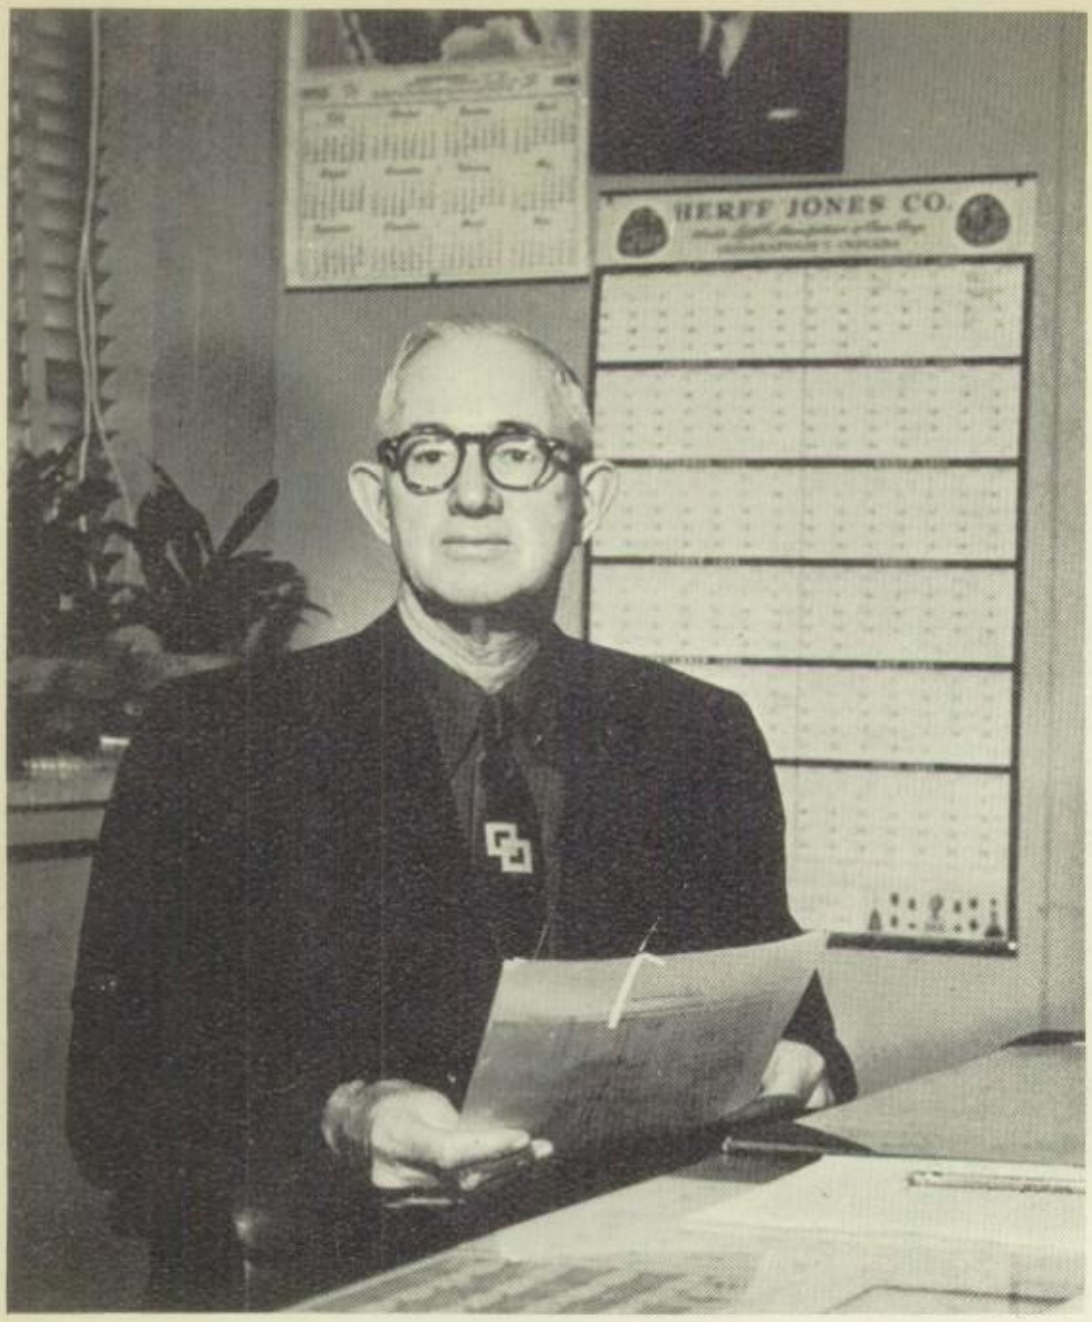
BOARD OF EDUCATION











SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

Dear Students,

This yearbook arrives as we bring to a close the first year in our new building. I need not remind you that your opportunities are better than they have been in previous years; your facilities required to accomplish your goal are better; and the field for employment for young men and young women has never been more inviting.

The proposition is squarely up to you. Will you qualify for the jobs awaiting you, or will you take the path of least resistance? To qualify for the better things of life, you will have to lay aside many of the fun loving attractions and work. That word "work" is a four letter word that has not been too popular in this age of easy money. You cannot prepare for a happy, fruitful life without work. For too many people are looking for success without labor. It isn't to be found that way.

Behind the scenes in the lives of great and successful men, you will find the story of work, sacrifice, and unselfish devotion to make a better world. The story of your life will be important if you take advantage to train yourself to live honestly and to contribute to the worthwhile things of life. You cannot always take the easy way toward this goal.

Sincerely yours,

B.C. Goodwin
